General Local News.

The nutting season has just set in. Fresh Pickles ready for table use at Williams Bros. Circuit Court will convene the second Monday in November. Remember the election next Tuesday, and vote for J. A. McKenzie. Don't forget the Excursion next Sunday. Only $1 the round trip. The forest surrounding town begins to wear a melancholy appearance. Remember the Excursion next Sunday from Elizabethtown to Owensboro. Go to the polls Tuesday, and vote for the Greenback Democrat, Jas. A. McKenzie. WATER.—One hundred bushel of good shelled oats. W. T. Kine. There was a good crowd in attendance at Quarterly Court last week, and a considerable amount of business was transacted. We tender thanks to Mr. J. D. Allison the gentlemanly conductor, for an invitation to participate in the excursion next Sunday. Messrs. Thomas Brothers will accept thanks for a sample of their five cent cigars—the Black Diamond, Good Taste, College Student and Luxury. Mr. W. C. Morton has rented the brick store house formerly occupied by Wm. L. Rowe, and will move his stock of groceries and furniture in the same, in a few days. Little Cupid, with his bow full string and his quiver loaded with darts, has been hovering over our town for some time past, and the result will be, we predict, that of several weddings in Hartford are long.

Pure Apple Vinegar, for sale at WILLIAMS BROS.

Notice.—The Sunday passenger train on the road have been discontinued for the season. A. ANDERSON, General Manager.

Mr. Seth McDowell has accepted a position behind the counter of Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin's drug store where he will be glad to see those wanting drugs and medicines.

The Louisville Exposition, which has been open to the world for nearly two months past, closed last Saturday. It grew in interest clear up to the close. Thousands were kept from attending the same, on account of yellow fever.

All the members of the M. E. Church South, Hartford, are requested to meet at the church next Friday night, at the ringing of the bell, to attend to business of importance pertaining to the parsonage.

The committee appointed to sell the parsonage and purchase one more suitable, have exchanged the same for the residence owned by Mr. B. P. Berryman—giving a difference of $400 between buildings. The parties exchanged residences last Monday.

Mr. William Goldstein, Optician, son of Dr. A. Goldstein, the skillful Optician of Louisville, is in our town. People with failing and defective vision will do well to have their eyes adjusted with proper glasses by him, thereby preserving their sight and keeping it in a healthy condition. Mr. G. comes well recommended.

We are glad to learn from the Muhlenberg Echo, that the fair recently held in Greenville, was a success notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather the first three days of the fair. The stockholders and officers should feel encouraged at this result, and live in anticipation of more favorable weather at their next annual meeting.

We had the pleasure while attending the Greenville fair, of meeting Mr. Urey Woodson, editor and proprietor of the Muhlenberg Echo. We had heard much of Mr. Woodson, but were surprised to find a man so young in years—being perhaps, the youngest editor in Kentucky. We predict for him a bright future in the editorial ranks.

Our Educational Editor is grand as, at last, and it takes a bed cord and jack-screw to hold him in his boots this morning. It is a "gal," daughter of J. R. and A. G. Hunter, and weighs eight and one-half pounds, and answers, or rather, will answer, bimby, shortly, before long some of these times, to the euphonious whoop of Miss Mildred Elizabeth Whooop: Hurrah for the Herald.

Woman is always first in charity, benevolence and kindness. A few days ago it was found that the minister, Mr. Randolph, who has just taken charge of the circuit here, was out of a cooking stove. Upon this intelligence, Mrs. Jennie Mosley and Mrs. Jennie McHenry, started out asking donations of the citizens, and by night had raised money enough to buy a good stove and outfit.

About this time each year, a certain class of people begin to move. For several weeks past, quite a number of wagons have been seen passing through our streets. The line of emigration seems to be from Tennessee to Indiana and Illinois, and vice versa, often exchanging homes in the same State and county. It seems that these people would learn by experience the old adage, "a rolling stone gathers no moss."

The yield of the corn crop will be very much below an average in Barren county. The summer just passed was accompanied by very partial rains and the lightness of the crop is only a natural consequence. There will be quite enough for home consumption, as home owing to unremunerative prices will not consume the average amount allowed in seasons of higher price for meats.—(Glasgow Times).

Our people can not add more to the beauty of their premises, and at a less expense, than by setting ornamental shade trees. There is nothing more delightful to the eye or which so increases the worth of a place than a fine shaded and well kept front yard. The man who neglects to beautify his premises should be made to board in the third story of a second class hotel and look out in the back yard at a lively stable all his life, to punish him for his want of appreciation of the beautiful.—(Glasgow Times).

A most disastrous fire visited our town on the morning of the 20th inst. The wagon factory and blacksmith shop of Mr. J. L. Miller, the shingle, spoke and stove factory and cooper shop of Archie, Graham & Co., the wagon wood-work shop of Woods & Myers, and the coopering establishment of J. W. Steele were all entirely destroyed, entailing a loss upon the parties respectively, (estimated) viz: J. L. Miller, $1,500; Archie, Graham & Co., $4,000; Woods & Myers, $700, and J. W. Steele, $300. None of the property insured. Besides the pecuniary loss to the parties, the fire has been a matter of great damage to the business interests of the town. All of these gentlemen were enterprising, energetic and industrious, and their business was quite a feature in commerce to the town. These manufacturers were bringing quite a large amount of trade annually to our limits. We hope that, by the aid of our citizens, they will speedily be re-established at work.—(Breckenridge News).

Railroad Excursion from Elizabethtown to Owensboro.

An Excursion Train will be run Sunday, November 3d, 1878, from Elizabethtown to Owensboro and return for one dollar the round trip. The train will be in charge of Conductor J. D. Allison, and will pass Beaver Dam at 9:45 going down. This ride fair to be the most pleasant, and, perhaps, the last Railroad excursion this season. All persons desiring a day of enjoyment for a small amount of money, would do well to avail themselves of this opportunity. For further particulars, see large posters.

The Calhoun Fair.

We had not the pleasure of attending the Calhoun fair, but learn of those who were present, that the exhibition of stock as well as the attendance of people, came up to their most sanguine expectations. The weather the four last days of the fair, was beautiful, causing the hearts of the fair-going and fun-loving populace, to leap for joy. We understand the fair was a financial success to the Company.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Thomas Townsley Drives Home and is Found to be Dead.

Thomas Townsley, Esq., living near Pleasant Ridge, Ohio county, came to Hartford on Friday the 18th inst., and after attending to the business for which he came, left for home considerably intoxicated. It was late in the afternoon when he left, and the distance home being about fourteen miles, made it night when he would arrive. Upon reaching home about 8 o'clock, it was ascertained that he was dead. It is thought by some as he was driving a spring wagon, that he became so intoxicated that he fell with his head on the wheel, was crushed to death. Others supposed he was foully dealt with on the road. We have not heard sufficient facts in the matter to give an opinion, consequently will await further development of the mystery.

Take Warning.

SPRING FORD, GRAYSON CO., October 21, 1878.

Editor Herald: This is to warn the citizens of your county and others, against a man calling himself Harry Atherton. Said Atherton set in to work for me on my farm for the fall and winter, and ending crop season, but on last Thursday he went off, saying he was going to his father's to get a couple of hogs, and on Saturday night some time, he returned with a wagon, and before day on Sunday morning he left the place, taking with him one skillet and lid, some cups and saucers, and some other things which he never paid for; also one small testament, which I hope he will read, and profit by its precepts. He left several debts in the neighborhood unpaid. He went down the Hartford road, and is somewhere in your county. He is a man but little thought of in this country. Please give this a place in your paper, also Owensboro and Calhoun papers please copy, and by so doing you will keep the scamp from deceiving some one else.

Said Atherton is about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and light brown eyes, one of his eyes when he left was sore. His wife is rather below medium height and rather bulky, has red hair shingled. WILLIAM W. CREW.

Death to the Plague.

The wind and rain Saturday night, resulted in quite a change in the weather for good. The frost which covered the earth Monday morning with its robe of crystal beauty will be greeted in thousands of Southern homes, and many will be the voices of gratitude and praise to the divine giver who sent this silver shrouded messenger in this their hour of need. The ray of hope that broke in on their saddened hearts last week, was dimmed a few days later, by a return of several warm days. But now, that we may expect a continuance of cool weather, we trust that the long-lived plague has done, and the people may return to their homes from which they have so long been absent, without endangering their lives.

The Remmen Trade Police has with in the last few days, opened the largest and best stock of new goods that has ever been opened in this country, consisting of the best quality of shoes and boots, overcoats, and at astonishingly low prices which cannot be met by competitors. Clothing of every description which we cannot fail to guarantee in style and quality and lower than ever bought before in any market. Shirts, coats, dress goods, notions and other goods used in all families. I am well satisfied these goods cannot be sold lower anywhere else. Please call and examine our stock, as I am satisfied I can give to all our customers, and friends full satisfaction. Jeans and home-made linens below market price. Flannel undershirts a specialty. Four dozen Chinichills Overcoats just received at $5. each. Call and see them.

Two of the most industrious and enterprising young men in the Green river country are Messrs. Wm. G. and David Duncan. We were astonished, upon visiting McHenry recently, to find such an enlargement of their business. They have, by their fair dealing and close attention to business, built such a trade that they have been compelled to enlarge their business house. They have a large and well assorted stock of dry goods, clothing, &c., and are selling the same exceedingly low. Mr. Wm. G. Duncan is also Superintendent of the McHenry Coal Company, who, perhaps, ship more coal than any other mines on the P. & E. Railroad.

OHIO COUNTY.

STEWARTSVILLE, KY., Oct. 21, 1878.

Our little town is still improving. A few of the generous men of this vicinity have built one among the best school houses in the county. Miss Ellen Day has been employed as teacher. Messrs. Had Krown, Will Stewart and James McSherry being our trustees, we may expect success.

Dr. Motherhead leaves for Louisville to attend the Medical School this winter. Jesse G. Leach, one of our good citizens, died on Wednesday last.

Mr. Wesley Culbertson, a few days since, received a severe cut on the foot, which caused him to have the lock-jaw, and it is thought he will not recover.

Miss Eliza E. Wilson, of Pinechase, has something like a cancer, which has caused her left breast to enlarge to an enormous size, probably to the weight of fifteen pounds.

A few days since uncle Billy Stewart was making molasses near Rev. Williams' residence, when a dog made war on the person of said Billy. In making a hearty retreat, jumped in uncle Billy's box of boiling lard, and "breathed his life out sweetly there." Little damage was done to the molasses, but the cat was entirely ruined. J. W. Cox.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. Jo T. Miller was among those from Hartford attending the Calhoun fair last week.

Messrs. J. T. Smith and C. W. R. Cobb of Fordville, spent several days in town last week attending Quarterly Court.

Mr. E. R. Marrell our Master Commissioner has rented a portion of Mrs. E. A. Nall's residence and has moved to the same.

Mrs. E. C. Hubbard left last week for Chicago, where she will remain for several weeks visiting relatives. We wish her a pleasant trip.

Mr. Robert C. Hardwick, accompanied by his sister, Miss Katie, attended the Calhoun fair last week, returning home Sunday evening.

Mr. W. J. Scott, traveling for the wholesale house of Bridgford & Co., dealers in stoves and tinware, Louisville, was in town last week.

Messrs. John R. Collins, W. P. Haden and D. A. Goodman, returned home Sunday evening from Calhoun, where they had been attending the fair.

Miss Nellie Gates, one of Calhoun's fairest and most lovable young ladies, is visiting Miss Mamie Williams, near town.

Mr. Lycurgus Barrett, the genial local of the Hartford Herald, passed here last Sunday on his way home from the Greenville fair.—Rockport Register.

Ralph Wellman, Esq., representing the wholesale glass and glassware house of Rosenheim & Co., Louisville, spent a day or two in town last week in the interest of the firm.

W. E. Mortimore, the popular representative of the wholesale firm of Middleton, Barrett & Bowen, dealers in wood and willow ware, Louisville, is registered at the Hartford House.

We had the pleasure a few evenings ago, of a call from Mr. Stephen Statelet of Louisville. Mr. Statelet formerly lived in Hartford and has many relatives and friends here. He will remain several days in this vicinity.

Mrs. W. T. King, and daughters, Misses Maggie, Lottie and Katie, and son Willie, accompanied by Messrs. W. H. Lewis and Lou Hill, left Thursday morning to attend the Calhoun fair—returning Sunday evening.

Mr. Armistead Jones, our County Assessor, left Saturday morning for Cadiz, Trigg county, Ky., where he will remain for several weeks visiting relatives. Of course he will stop over Sunday at Greenville, on his way down.

Wm. Goldstein, Esq., of the firm of Goldstein & Son, Opticians and manufacturers of Lenses, Spectacles, &c., is in town the guest of the Hartford House. Those wishing anything in his line of goods would do well to give him a call.

Rev. W. B. Barnett, pastor of the M. E. Church at Coalton, Ky., has been transferred by Bishop Foster, to the Minnesota Conference, and stationed at the city of Fargo, Dakota Territory. Mr. Barnett is a son of Mr. Jo Con Barnett, of No Creek.

Mrs. Mary Harding, daughter of Judge J. C. Townsend, who has been quarantined from her husband, Mr. Enoch Harding, of Mansfield, Texas, for about two months past, left last Monday morning for the above named place. We wish her a safe and pleasant journey to the Lone Star State.

Mr. Armistead Jones, returned from Greenville last Thursday, where he had been attending the fair. From the length of time he remained after the fair closed one would suppose that he had become captive to the charms of one of Greenville's fair daughters. We imagine we could hear him upon leaving repeating in the language of Byron: Maid of Greenville, I am gone. Think of me, Sweet, when alone; Though I go to Hartford, old, Greenville, claims my heart and soul.

Exit Sunday Trains.

The traveling public will regret to learn that the Sunday passenger trains on the P. & E. R. R., have been discontinued for the season. See notice of A. Anderson, General Manager.

Death Among the Printers at Memphis.

A revised list of those who have died and are convalescent in each of the newspaper offices has been prepared, and shows the following and record: In the Appeal office, nineteen died, twenty-one are convalescent and two escaped.

In the Advance there have been thirteen deaths. There are ten convalescents and five who were not attacked.

In the Ledger office but one escaped. Four deaths occurred. Nine employees survived the attack and are again at their cases.

Railroad Runnash-up.

OWENSBORO JUNCTION, Oct. 23, 1878.

The Owensboro & Nashville line had a wreck one mile from the Junction, throwing off four cars, and breaking one entirely in two. The President and General Superintendent were both on board the train. None hurt. The passengers walked to the Sandusky Hotel and took dinner with the gentlemanly proprietor, W. H. Sandusky. I. WILL COMBAGAN.

Notice. With the view of closing my outstanding business, I take this means of giving notice to all persons indebted to me by note or account, to come forward and pay off the same before the first of January next, as all such claims will then be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. I mean what I say without any exceptions, and as the time given is sufficiently long, no one certainly can complain, should they compel me to collect by law. S. W. I am the agent for Ohio county of this machine, which is one of, if not the best machine in existence. Terms easy. Headquarters at Addison's store and Thomas Bro's grocery, Hartford, Ky. 31-17.

The Southern Agriculturist.

A large eight-page, wide awake farmers horticultural and grangers paper, will be sent from the 4th of July to the close of the year, for only 50 cents. It is very cheap, and we commend it to the farmers of Ohio county. Enclose money and name to Thos. J. Key, Louisville, Ky.

Extra Remedies to Malarial Infection.

Persons whose blood is thin, digestion weak and liver sluggish, are extra liable to the attacks of malarial disease. The most trifling exposure may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healthy, would resist the miasmatic taint the only way to secure immunity from malarial localities where it is prevalent, is to tone and regulate the system by improving weakened digestion, enriching the blood, and giving a wholesome impetus to biliary secretion. These results are accomplished by nothing so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which long experience has proved to be the most reliable safeguard against fever and kindred disorders, as well as the best remedy for them. The Bitters are, moreover, an excellent invigorant of the organs of urination, and an active depurant, eliminating from the blood those acid impurities which originate rheumatic ailments. 40-1m.

A Pardonable Pride.

Proudest people to delay, by any laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health does not match the bright eye, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the luxuriance, the rich color, and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands preeminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but unfailingly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a soft rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectually removes dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely curing itching and humors of the scalp, and keeping the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exquisitely perfumed, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not a dye, and is unequalled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle of your druggist and test its merits. 40-10w3m.

From all parts of the country reports come of the immense sales and increasing demand for that steadily popular Sewing Machine. The old and reliable STANDARD, the price of which the proprietors wisely reduced to $20, including all the trappings, and at once secured for themselves a popularity among the people far beyond that ever yet attained by any other machine at any price, the consequence of which is, agents are leaving the high priced machines, and seeking territory for the STANDARD. Knowing from experience that with the best goods at the lowest price, they can outsell all other machines, where the superior quality and low price is made known. This splendid Machine combines all the improvements. It is far ahead of all others in beauty and durability of its work, ease and management, light running and certainty of operation. It is sensibly made upon sound principles, with positive working parts all steel, and can be safely put down as the very perfection of a serviceable Sewing Machine. In every particular, it will outlast any machine, and at a price far down below any other. It is thoroughly warranted for five years. Kept in order free of charge. And sent to any part of the country for examination by the customer before payment of the bill. We can predict equally as large a demand for them in this section as in others. Families desiring the best machine manufactured should write direct to the factory. Any enterprising persons wishing to seize the chance, should apply for a desirable agency. See advertisement in another part of this paper. Address Standard Machine Co., Cor. Broadway & Clinton Place, New York. 4-40-ly.

Keep Guard.

A bad cold or cough, the most invidious of all the evils which afflict mankind readily yields to Cousseau's Compound Honey of Tar, and a practical test of its virtues has never failed to convince the most skeptical that it is the best remedy ever offered the public for Coughs, Colds and all diseases of the throat and lungs. The editor of one of our religious papers says that a friend of his, suffering with Asthma, informs him that he experienced more benefit from the use of Cousseau's Compound Honey of Tar than from all the various remedies he has tried. If you have a bad cold or cough remember that Cousseau's Compound Honey of Tar will speedily relieve you. It is sold by J. W. Ford, at 50 cents a Bottle. [1] 41-10w

"'Tis Sweet to Love, but Oh! how Bitter."

Their acquaintance began auspiciously, beautiful, amiable and interesting. His loveliness excited the admiration of all who knew her, and it is not strange that after a few meetings the Aurora of love irradiated his skin, and he wandered in a blissful dream of happiness. His wooing progressed favorably, and might have terminated successfully, had he not told his love in a voice which sent a shudder through her frame, and produced a feeling of revulsion fatal to his hopes. He should not have appeared in the refined presence of his lady love when laboring under the disadvantage of a bad cold, when he could have rid himself of it so easily by the use of Cousseau's Compound Honey of Tar, a never failing remedy for Coughs, Colds and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Price 50 cents. For sale by J. W. Ford. [1] 41-10w
